

EDUCATORS RISING

On Tuesday, May 21, 2024, the 2024-2025 Connecticut Educators Rising Student Cabinet Officers meet with Representative Jeff Currey at the Hartford State Capitol to discuss current education trends and share their perspectives about the field of education. The students also shared their experiences with their EdRising Clinic field work where they teach lessons and support students from various backgrounds and abilities.

Representative Currey entertained student questions to include budgets, the teacher shortage in Connecticut, budgets to address student needs, teaching certification testing and expenses of the testing, and the discrepancies of funding between urban and suburban school districts.

The students ended their visit enjoying lunch in the Capitol Cafe with their Teacher Leaders, Kim Celotto, EdRising Curriculum Coordinator, Dr. Sone-Moyano, Deputy Commissioner and Dr. Shuana Tucker Chief Talent Officer from the Connecticut State Department of Education.

Educators Rising in Connecticut is supported by an anonymous donor via the Educators Rising national office headquartered in Arlington, Virginia